Outlook

Focus on revenue growth and ROIC attractiveness

- Improved global investment, recent acquisitions and new businesses are expected to boost revenue growth
- ROIC continues to be company's main driver

Consistent recovery from sales abroad

- The improvement in order intake in the short-cycle products continues, especially in OEMs
- We have already found some opportunities in projects that require long-cycle equipment
- Industries continue the recovery trends

New business and acquisitions will continue to positively impacting performance in Brazil

- The entry into the solar generation business and the acquisition of TGM should contribute to the GTD's revenue growth in 2018
- In the industrial electro-electronic equipment area the continuous improvement is concentrated in short-cycle products
- Economic and political scenarios should guide the performance of the next quarters
